

Respectfully Dedicated to Mrs. Amelia Nahar.

“LAURIETT.”

May be played in

BALLAD.

Composed by H. F. WILLIAMS, 1840.

Andante.

1. Lau - ri - et! Ah! my
2. Fare thee well: Ah! my dear - est, I will oft - en think of thee, When dear - est, Wilt thou oft - en think of me, When I'm cres.

far, far a - way o'er the deep... and gloo - my far from my home, yes, my love,... when far from Espressivo.

sea; Lau - ri - ett, thou'lt ne'er for - get the happy thee; Lau - ri - ett, Ah! canst thou tell the grief that morn... when first we met, When I saw... and lov'd thee in my heart doth dwell, For my love,... we soon must

dear-ly; My charm-ing Lau-ri-ett, When I sev-er; But say, love, ere we part, Wilt ad lib. lento.

saw... and lov'd sin-cerely, My charm-ing Lau-ri-thou.. be mine for-ev-er? Are we but one in

- ett.
 heart?

tempo primo.

Animoso.

But thou, thou wilt ne'er for - Once more my love wilt thou em -

- get me, Ah no, thou wilt not for -
- brace me, For hark! the sig - nal calls to

- sake me, For thee, my love, my life, my du - ty, I must a - way my love, and ritard. ad lib. tr

dear - est, I ne'er will for - - leave thee, Fare well, fare thee.....

get.
well.

tempo primo.